Subject: The challenge starts tomorrow - are you ready?

Hey there awesome Challenge-Taker!

Neta here! Just a quick reminder that starting tomorrow, Monday January 30, each morning (EST) until February 3, you will receive a daily email with instructions for your daily challenge!

I am so excited to start the 5-Day Membership & Course Strategy Challenge with you! I have put together something that I believe will challenge and inspire you, will give you tools and direction and will help you focus on achieving your goals using your strengths and talents in a way that feels right to you!

Of course, if you haven't joined our awesome No Hasslers Facebook group, do so NOW because learning, sharing and connecting with other like-minded badass solopreneurs will make your challenge that much more fun and successful! And by the way, feel free to invite any like-minded friends to join using this link for a chance of both of you winning a No Hassle Membership & Course Platform.

Now that we got that out of the way... and since we are starting a new relationship, me and you, it's only fair to pull the curtain and allow you a peek into a few little-known (and possibly weird) facts about me.

These may seem a little bit wacky or surprising, but I would encourage you to suspend judgment for a bit and allow the weirdness to delight & surprise you.

Here goes:

- I sleep on average only 4-5 hours a night.
- My favorite hobby is taking a mid-day nap.
- My favorite movie is When Harry Met Sally.
- I eat only 3 fruits - apples, watermelons and grapes.
- The most adventurous thing I ever did was build and run a hotel in the middle of the jungle in Costa Rica.
- I was a flight simulator instructor during my military service.
- I am the worst joke teller you will ever meet.
- I was robbed at gun point (but lived to tell and joke about it!).
- I speak 3.5 languages and lived in 6 different countries (so far).
- In my "real life" I own a popular and successful cloth diaper brand (you heard that right, I sell poop-catchers for babies!).
- I like to call BS on, well... BS! Just because a lot of people say something, or assume something, doesn't mean it's not all BS! When I see something I don't like or don't agree with, I make a point of sharing my feelings :-) and whenever possible - offer a better alternative. (I know it's actually 11 facts about me and not 10, but I really want you to know this one about me!).

So now I want to get to know you a bit better too. Hit reply and let me know about one super weird or unique fact about you!

I'm all ears!

Cheers,
Neta
